BROCKTON MAN INDICTED FOR EDGAR PLAYGROUND MURDER

BROCKTON, MA – Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz has announced that Anildo Lopes Correia, DOB 03/10/1997 AKA “Ace” of Brockton was indicted by the Plymouth County Grand Jury today for the stabbing murder of Ywron Martins (DOB: 04/15/1997), of Brockton.

The charge stems from Correia’s alleged involvement in the fatal stabbing of Martins on April 22nd at approximately 6:40 p.m., at James Edgar Playground in Brockton. State Police assigned to the Plymouth County District Attorney’s Office arrested Correia Sunday night, April 26th in Fall River, after a 4-day search.

Correia has been held without bail since his arraignment at Brockton District Court on April 27th. An arraignment date in Superior Court has not yet been scheduled.

The Grand Jury’s indictment of Correia followed a two-month investigation led by State Police assigned to the Plymouth County District Attorney’s Office and detectives from the Brockton Police Department. Assistant District Attorney Thomas Flanagan is prosecuting the case.
